

State of New Hampshire

RICHARD M. FLYNN
COMMISSIONER OF SAFETY

EARL M. SWEENEY
ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER

DEPARTMENT OF SAFETY

James H. Hayes Safety Building, 33 Hazen Drive, Concord, NH 03305
Tel: (603) 271-2559
Speech/Hearing Impaired
TDD Access Relay NH 1-800-735-2964

The State of New Hampshire total FFY 2005 Homeland Security Grant award is $14,793,570. Under the FFY 2005 Homeland Security Grant allocation, the following will be eligible for funding:

- The First Responder Radio Interoperability Project to continue the purchase of compatible radio equipment for local fire departments and emergency medical services $4.5 million
- The LAWNET project to purchase interoperable radio equipment for local and county law enforcement $150,000
- Regional existing hazardous materials teams throughout the state $850,000 ($106,250 each)
- Regional police SOU teams including Nashua Bomb Squad $273,700 for equipment and $80,000 for training
- Statewide exercises in all applicant jurisdictions $500,000
- Training in incident command, weapons of mass destruction and other terrorism-related topics at the police and fire academies including backfill and overtime reimbursement for federal DHS approved courses $125,000
- DHS approved overtime authorized during elevated national security alerts $100,000
- Funding for the purchase of equipment by municipalities and counties per federal guidelines on a competitive threat/risk based criteria
  - State Homeland Security Program (SHSP) First Responder $2,139,073.28
  - Law Enforcement Terrorism Prevention Program (LETPP) $1,854,864.00
- Funding for the purchase of equipment by municipalities and counties per federal guidelines on a competitive "All-Hazards" enhancement criteria
  - State Homeland Security Program (SHSP) First Responder $534,768.32
  - Law Enforcement Terrorism Prevention Program (LETPP) $618,288.00
- The DHS designated local share of funding for the Citizens Corps $136,453 (sub-granted to Volunteer NH!)